TRANSCRIPT

INTRODUCTION

(soundtrack: vcr-classique - digital water) heyyy... lemme explain something... super duper important...

When you are given a platform with power from people who follow your lead, YOU are responsible.

now, a certain level of immaturity, ignorance, arrogance -- whatever the fuck -- can make you unfit to own or use this aforementioned platform.

in an age where consequences aren't always there for someone with enough authority or wealth, Pariet is kind of a fuckin' nutjob. i'm not even shitting you either, this moron thinks he's a fucking KING. he wholeheartedly believes he's the discord verison of the wolf of wallstreet.

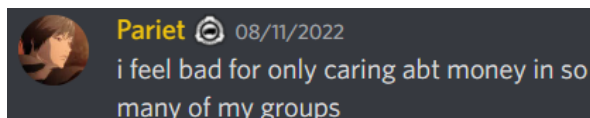

anyway, despite lacking functioning neurons on the right side of his brain, Pariet recognizes that one of the most important forms of currency is attention, not fucking robux, meaning he thrives on both negative and positive attention all the time, at the same time.

the only downside to this philosophy is...

the moment this attention is taken away from you, you and your shitty little roblox corporation won't matter anymore.

he gets all ambitious about the idea it sounds great, many cool concepts!
2 days later it falls flat on its face he has very litle support on his projects and here's why.

SCAMMING

(soundtrack: macroblank - step by step)

firstly, let me be very, very clear when i say this.

Pariet, the way you handle finances and general development...

is just sooo fucking sad.

you'll see what i mean momentarily, but for now, let me take the rest of you viewers back to a time where Pariet launched a patreon!

Alright, so I've been thinking about how I'm going to be drafting up this Patreon for a while to make it more interesting and lucrative than our competitors, I've decided to make some genuine and real perks for our Patreons other than just financial gain, this time around Patreons with our group will be given an array of perks that should help them get more out of their donations!

To our big Patreons I'll be doing an exclusive giveaway for those Patreons, I hope to see many of you around and I hope that there comes to be more connection with community and developers via this!

no in game perks since it's against terms of service at ROBLOX, HOWEVER I can do roblox gift card and discord nitro giveaways for exclusive patreons only (edited) oh yeah, here it is... i have no fuckin' idea why Pariet decided to include a statement about the Israeli Iron Dome anti-air system while advertising his Patreon.

but anyway, the phrase "Patreon subscriptions is only partially going to me, a large portion is going to devs too" is literally the biggest fucking red flag ever, okay? let's be real.

basically, as a patreon member, you'd apparently be getting all these interesting perks that are completely different for every tier you pay for! oh wait, nevermind.

behind the scenes content is literally just pictures of terrain from a poorly made game that's about to be replaced by a brand new poorly made game.

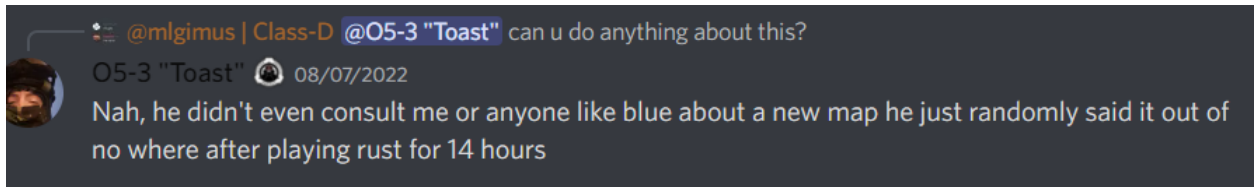

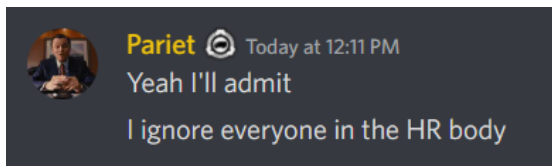

now, yeah this sucks, but you may be asking: well, why is this under the scamming category? ohhh man, it's because Pariet kept every single cent from the Patreon, refused to give any funds to his developers, and shut the Patreon down after a couple months of running it since people started to realize the perks were ALL bullshit.

what could be a reason as to why Pariet refused to pay his devs any Patreon funds?

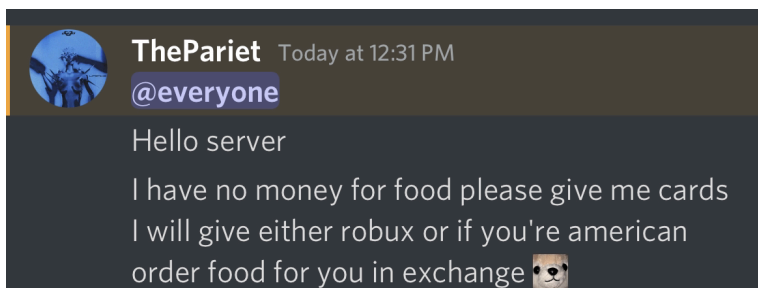

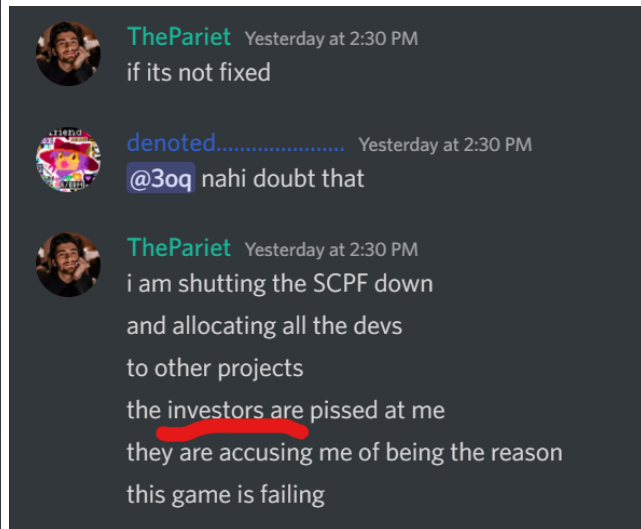

well, it's because apparently, he doesn't take ANY of them seriously.

you heard that right, he doesn't give. a. fuck. about people that are volunteering their time and effort just so he can enjoy a moment of success in his failure of a business.

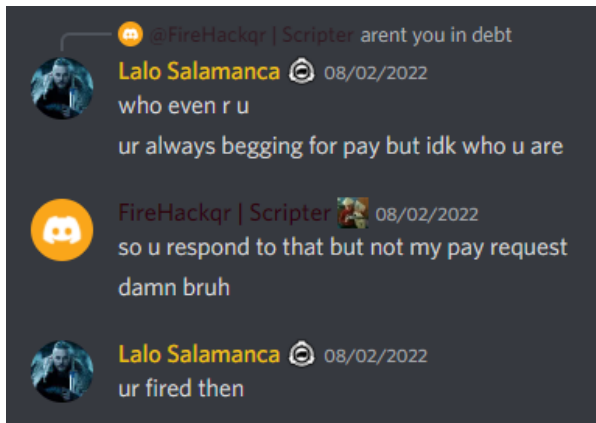

the manchild begs his own employees for money because he's supposedly more than $10,000 in financial debt.

he cuts their robux pay substantially because he thinks paying on a basis of 'oh how many hours did it take for this guy to make this thing' is a smart idea.

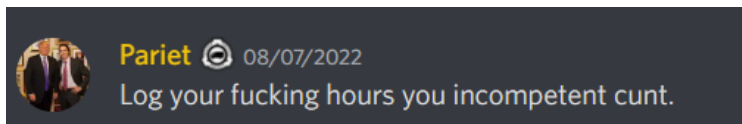

he harasses them by threatening to fire them or smear their reputation in his wannabe corporate alliance, and pleenty more.

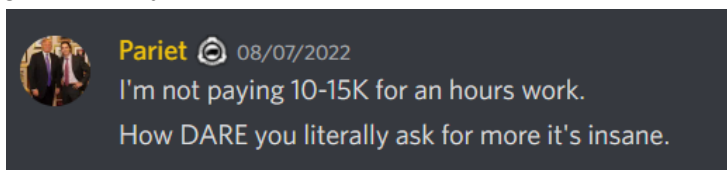

look, Pariet... i can't believe that i, a lowly degenerate that tried to get involved in your cesspool of a community, have to tell you that paying developers an hourly wage is not gonna get your game done faster.

that concept just encourages them to spend like 8 hours AFK on roblox studio because they've already finished working on your shitty project that took a whole 10 minutes to complete.

obviously, since they want to be paid for it, spending hours of doing nothing is the only way to get it since you won't believe it took 10 minutes for them to do it.

and yet, Pariet, you still refuse to pay developers in this group PER PROJECT. more hours on roblox studio = more money, according to the legend himself.

either way, this idea of getting more money is on its own a complete fucking lie, since Pariet loves to cut payment, change it, withhold it, and just simply give it out to someone more loyal.

Pariet, buddy, you say you gave 2 million robux out to devs that aren't even in the one community YOU own.

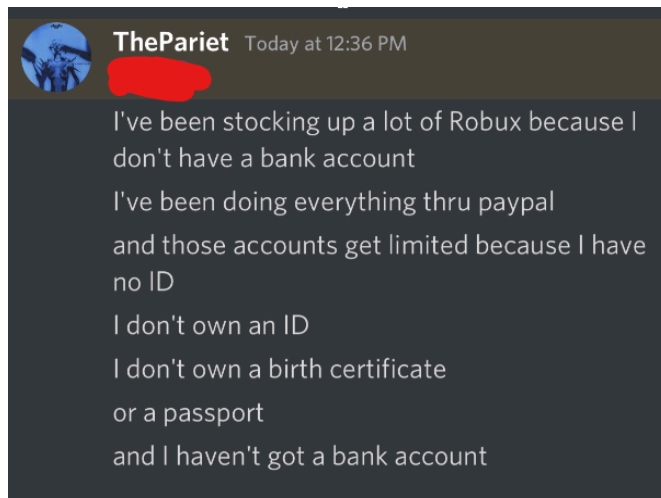

flexing your financial achievements means nothing when you can't exchange the robux for real money and instead opt for begging your employees for some.

i'm telling you all, this fucker is a downright fraud.

the fact Pariet has the gall to say to his own dev, which mind you he apparently doesn't take seriously, that he has no form of ID, a birth certificate, a passport, or even a FUCKING BANK ACCOUNT just goes as its own beautiful display of stupidity.

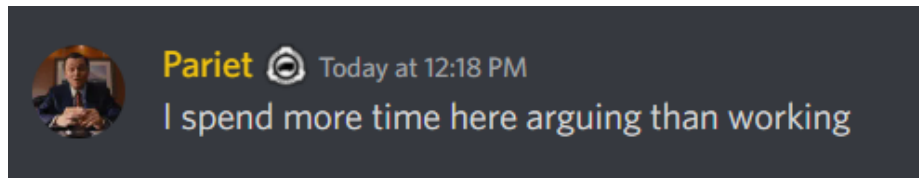

therefore, i conclude that everyone who works, partners, or pays this wannabe conman is giving their money to a moronic lowlife manchild who's on the cusp of losing everything he brags about.

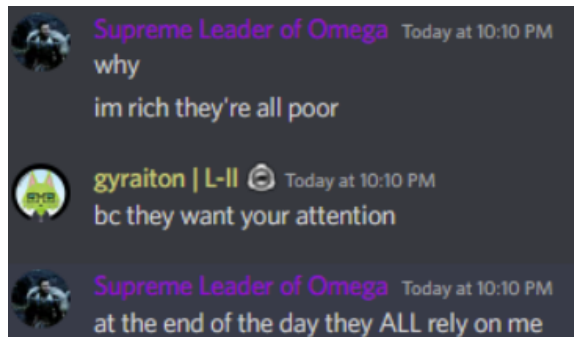

HARASSMENT

(soundtrack: bodyline and pocari coating - see the light)

oh pariet, remember when you said you spend more time arguing with your own members than working?

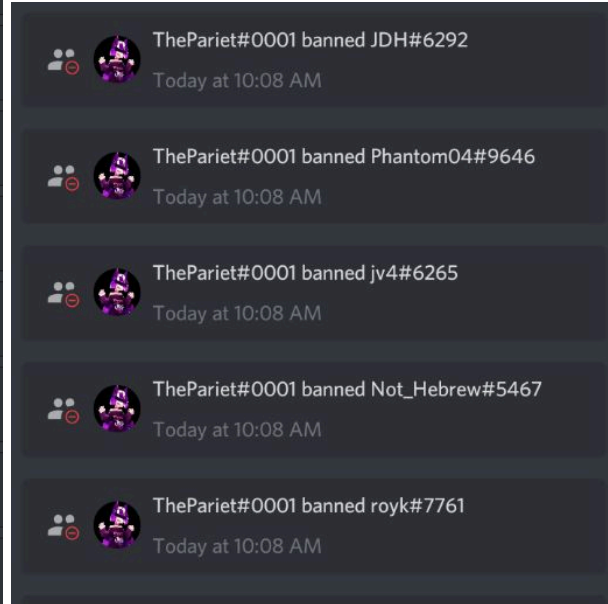

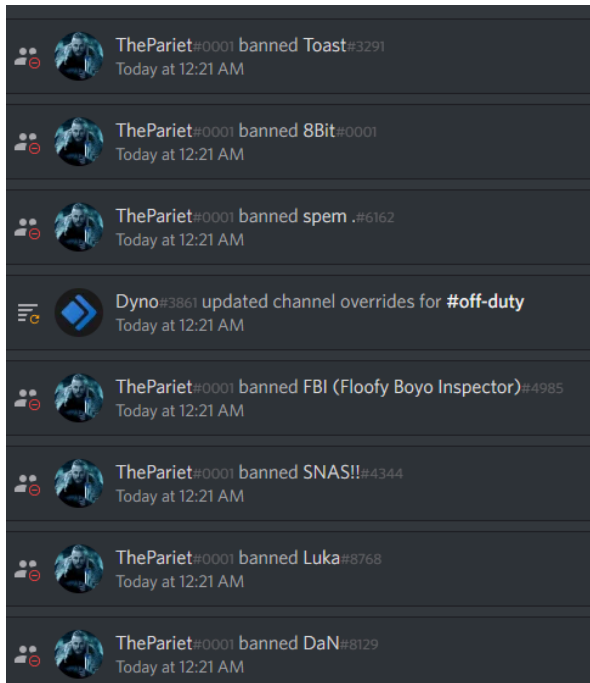

here's the thing though... i think we should use the term 'arguing' very lightly because your FAVORITE thing to do is stomp your wittle baby feet and throw insults relating to how rich and important you are towards anyone who disagrees with you.

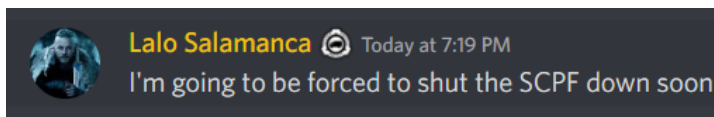

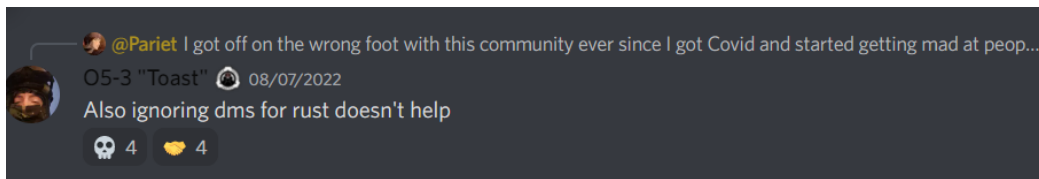

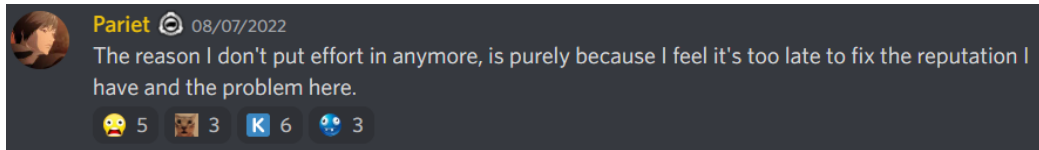

hah, rich and important. yeah right, Pariet!

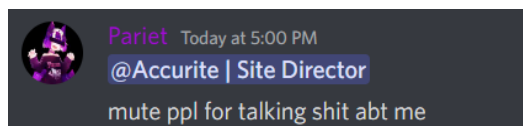

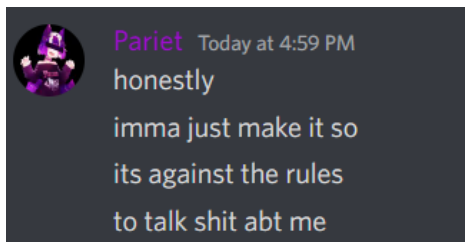

anyway, after attacking the person pointing out your biggest, deepest insecurities, you usually decide to mass-ban anyone who sides with your quote unquote arch nemesis.

but, of course, you have to try your absolute hardest to victimize yourself first while also attempting to shame this random member of your platform right before you kick them out.

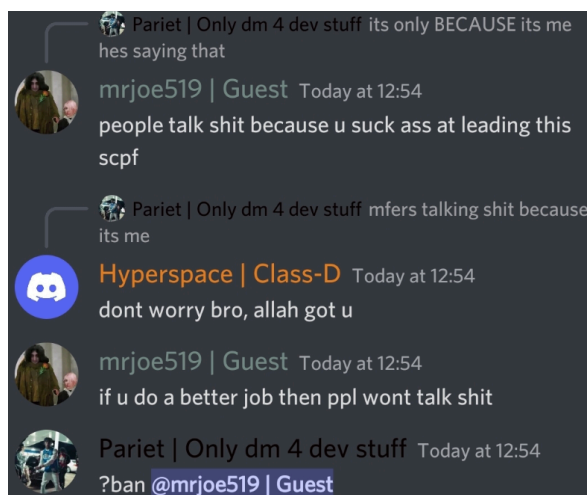

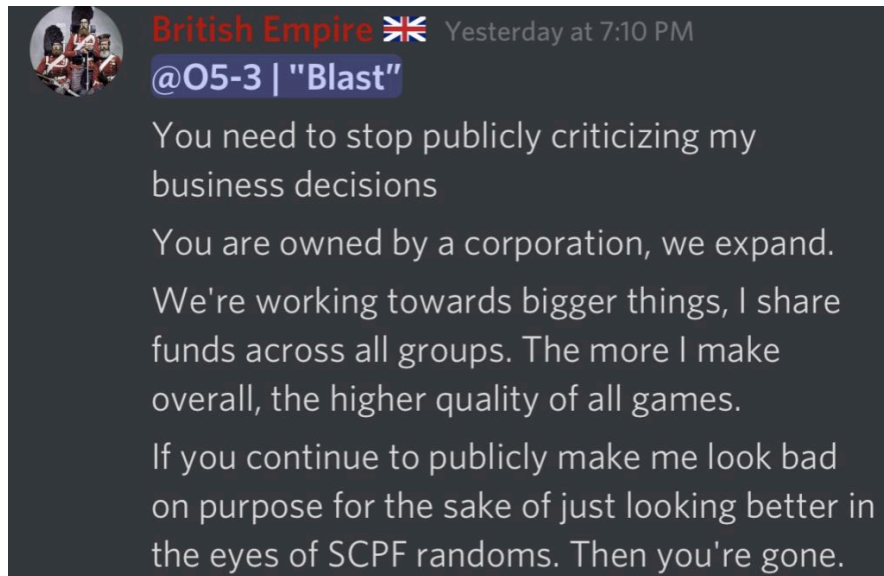

yup, this is an 18 year old adult man... that's all i need to say here.

you see, one thing's plain and simple here in my eyes, Pariet.

if you can't handle criticism, then you shouldn't be anywhere near a position that's built around leadership and responsibility.

haha, that's what i would say to someone that's humble enough to understand the concept of criticism.

i mean, this guy's covert narcissism isn't even fucking covert anymore. his ego is plastered on a light-up billboard in Las Vegas with his misshapen face stapled right in the middle.

i'm sure you all remember when i mentioned how Pariet likes to harass his employees in the previous chapter, right? yeah, that's not going away.

like i said before, the moron threatens to fire his own people & smear their reputation in his pathetic roblox corporation if they don't keep quiet. i mean check out what he's been saying about a veteran dev that's been here for years...

Pariet Neglects his Developers and scammed people?

conference
MaD Developer Conference / Q&A

- Mememoxine | L-III
- grobb | Class-E
- FireHacker | Scripter
- SevereWeatherWatch | ...
- O5-3 "Toast"
- 62 listening

A MaD conference was held with O5-3 and MaD Members to expose that the Group owner ParietDev was unable to perform his duties as a Group owner ever since he was handed the Foundation by Swift the Development team states that they have been neglected by Pariet, the conference starts with stating the issues and why Developers are leaving extremely fast and why some content is taking too long to be pushed out, it has been found out that unsurprisingly that Pariet has not been paying his developers at all for their hard work in providing content for the Site.

O5-3 "Toast" goes on to state "We are getting desperate for developers" as the situation will constantly happen where a Developer will be burnt out in what the -3 considered as "Pariet burnout" where Pariet will take a Developer and give them a long list of things to do Unrelated to the Foundation which will eventually cause them to burn out and quit the Site, this is one of the reasons that developers will leave the site but also because all Developers are working on the site to keep it alive but will not devote full time as they are not getting paid by Pariet, the man who is known for grabbing groups to make him money and not focusing or helping them at all, it is unknown how much Robux pariet has taken from this site as of this moment. But the next situation would revolve around the Custom gun gamepasses and Pariet most likely scamming the community out of a lot of Robux the minimum that O5-3 stated would be "250k Robux" off the Custom guns Gamepass that is now off sale that was made to allow a user to pay a lot of Robux to receive their own somewhat Overpowered gun with them having the freedom to ask for whatever they want on a Gun, the O5 goes on to state that those who have purchased this gamepass are "idiots" as most people who have purchased it has not yet received the Custom gun due to the sole fact the Development team is unable to get all the resources necessary to begin working on Custom guns.

O5-3 goes on to state that the development team has not seen that 250k that was made off of those Gamepasses at all, and goes to state how Pariet is indeed paying himself Robux out of the group [Unconfirmed] for who knows what reason and any sort of Strike that can be held will result in their replacement which is why the Development team has not made a move yet to try to get Pariet to listen to them as the last time they attempted it according to them pariet sent them a "Picture of himself with a caption on top that said eyebrows please" which goes to show that Pariet would completely ignore their questions as if he will focus on the site, Personally me the writer I have asked Pariet if he cared about Omega and he stated "Yes" this whole conference makes me question if he meant "Yes" to the part where he will get Profit I should've asked him if he cares about this community.

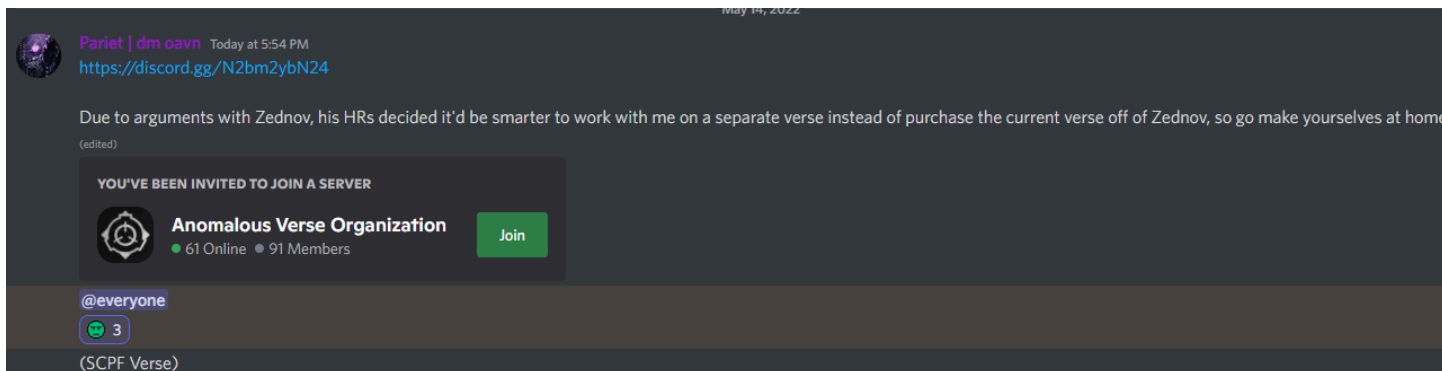

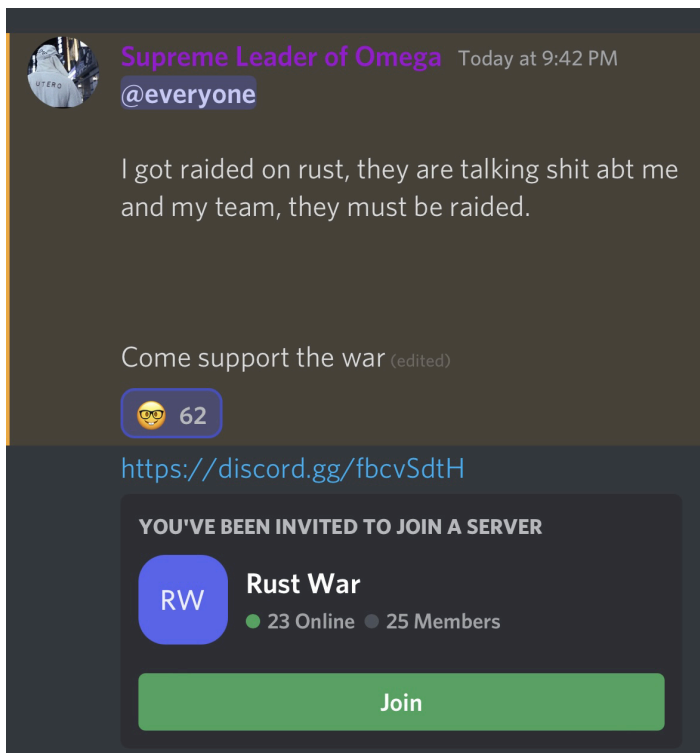

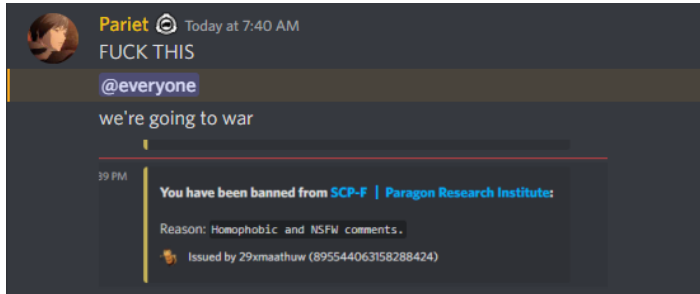

i think the most ironic part of this entire chapter is how much Pariet believes in himself as some sort of a messiah in the face of this community.

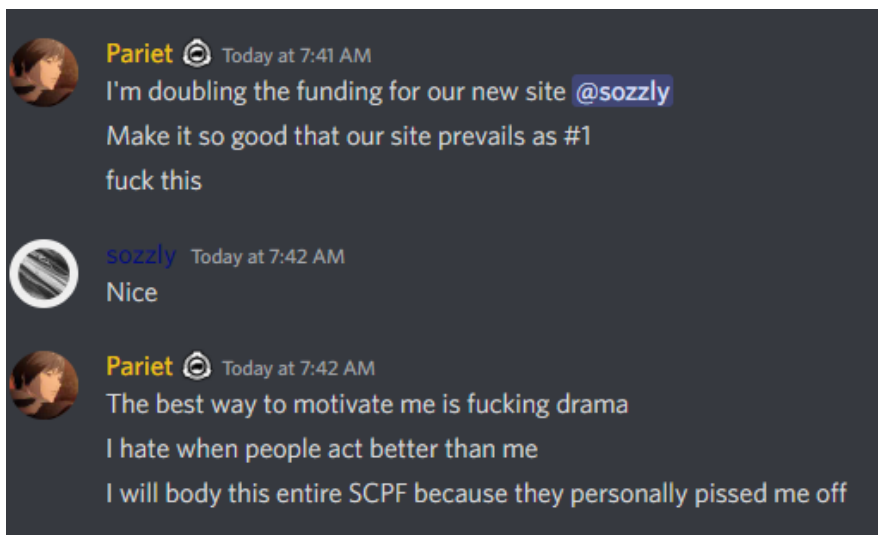

he prides himself on 'saving the group', when in reality he just breeds toxicity wherever he goes, attempting to use attention to give himself an edge in a genre that never accepted him in the first place.

let's take his conduct in other related groups as an example, shall we?

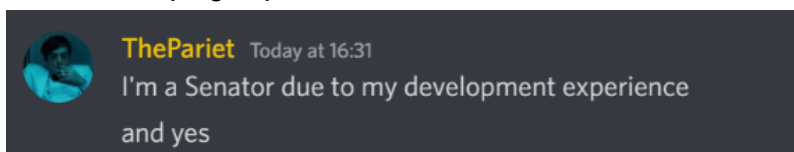

oh wait, nevermind. he gets himself banned before anyone can fuckin' blink.

and then... he decides to attack the servers he gets himself banned from? uh, wait a second. this can't be right...

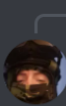

at least he's not banned from that one group... Vaktovia, right? aww, he even got a high rank. hmm, developing experience? how cute!

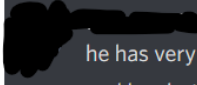

oh, but he doesn't have THAT kind of developing experience. any talent related to scripting, modeling, building, design, etc. is not included in Pariet's supposed developing experience.

 @Pariet idk how studio works and i cant work out the plugins to show them :P
05-3 "Toast"  Today at 12:41 yet u put dev in ur name..? nahhh, he's a roblox businessman...

one that uses negative attention to give himself a sense of superiority and popularity to stomp out anything or anyone who disagrees with him.

 08/19/2022
he has very little care for his projects and he shutdown the newspaper branch and fucked over the media part of DEA because we exposed him for a lawsuit people, i'm here with your best interest in heart. there's a point where everyone has to ask themselves the age old question at least once... is it really worth it?

the man you shovel money to is a volatile, toxic scammer who refuses to acknowledge that he manipulates your attention to feed an ever-growing superiority complex and make more money no matter what.

PERVERSION

i have a question.

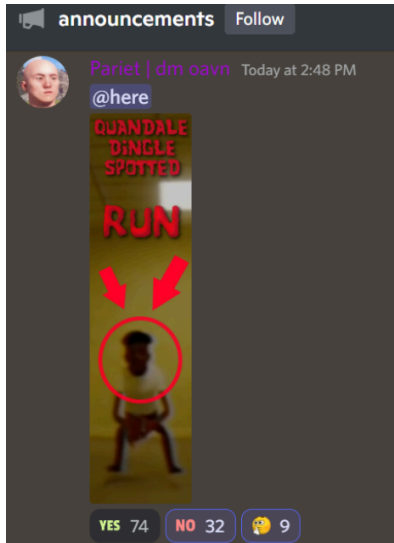

who do you think these roblox ads are marketed towards?

	Ben says play! (for Area - Omega) Impressions: 309026 Clicks: 2336 CTR: 0.76% Bid: 5000 Total Impr: 3810074 Total Clicks: 39753 Total CTR: 1.04% Total Bid: 75000  Not running Ben says play omega (for Area - Omega) Impressions: 285319 Clicks: 2098 CTR: 0.74% Bid: 5000 Total Impr: 3073939 Total Clicks: 28326 Total CTR: 0.92% Total Bid: 65000  Not running young teenagers, maybe? how about pre-teens? kids literally on the cusp of puberty?

Pariet, let's think about this.

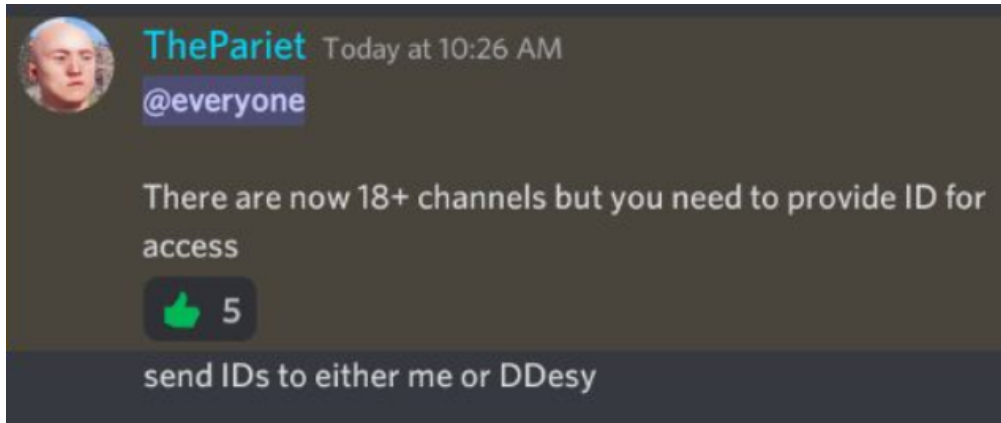

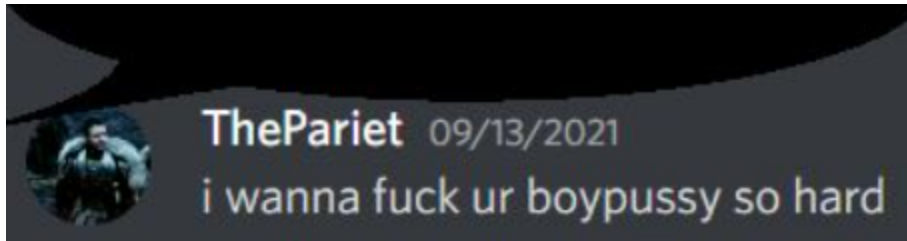

you have private erotic roleplay messages floating around in a community that you want to expand into a new-era business venture with a demographic of... whatever this is...

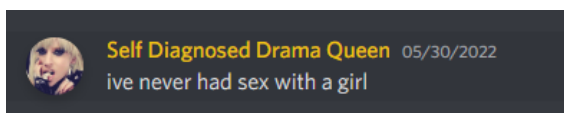

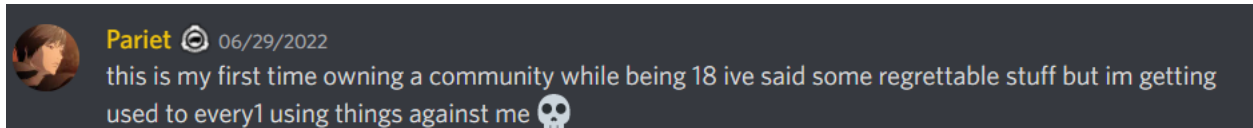

not to mention, your ERP dms are with a CURRENT DEVELOPER of your platform.

at this point, it doesn't even matter whether these screenshots are satire.

to willingly allow your self image to become fuckin' contaminated by this concept of a hypersexual dom femboy is genuinely disgusting, especially since you're marketing the business you do this in directly towards young teens.

plus, slipping innuendos to people that are legitimately 15-16 years old -- ahem, xenyv -- in a community that you're supposed to be fixing is a fuckin' beautiful display of either how immature you are or how perverted you are.

I thought he was finally quitting i mean you must remember what happened to Daxrentha when he did this, right?

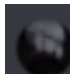

of course, i presume you wouldn't care anyway since you allow people like oavn into your business partnership.

let me remind you all that oavn took steps miles ahead of the previous 2019 unknown circusfest, specifically by pulling the IP addresses and actual whitepages of innocent people, threatening them with their personal information, and forcing them to screenshare their PCs.

oh yeah, he also sexualized a bunch of underage girls in this 'aegis prom' thing he wanted to do. 'horny robloxians'... 40+ e girls... sounds like a great deal!

CONCLUSION

(soundtrack: windows96 - hello earth)

now, even though the reason as to why Pariet harasses his own employees, scams people in his community, and spreads toxicity whenever he gets emotional, is completely unknown to me...

my guess stems from what i said at the beginning of this video... i think he does it to get more attention from the people in his platform because attention = success.

however, there is obviously a certain line that cannot be crossed.

Pariet is currently right at the edge of that metaphorical line, and it's plain to see that he is willing to cross it if that means he can be faced with more success.

the most ironic thing about this entire situation is that, Pariet is, at his core, nothing really more than a compulsive liar.

Pariet's entire business practice is a facade of powerful connections with people who seem rather fed-up with him, while he's trying to run a 60,000 member group as a lazy, impulsive, and talentless narcissist with no bank account or any form of ID.

we don't want your groups to fail, Pariet.

we all want you to own up to the fact that you're a piece of shit.

and with that, we want you to change and fix your behavior.

if you don't bother, then this video will never go away.

anyway, for the regular viewers who've stuck around til now, i have solutions for you if you'd like to abandon ship but stay with the same type of community.

for example, ilmue has been working on a side project on his own accord as an unrelated original group with very similar mechanics. its development is being done by a skilled team that has been in the genre for years, so the group is in great hands.

plus, there's a team of people working with emp on a lore-based passion project with similar mechanics but a completely different atmosphere. from what i know, this project is heavily under development, but its release will come with an entirely separate genre of games.

and lastly, the paragon project is a much better alternative to pariet's group, as the project is an entirely original group with similar mechanics and a gigantic playerbase.

again, if you'd like to join any of these alternative groups' discord servers, they are linked and endorsed.

thanks for listening. i hope this was somewhat enjoyable...

see ya later.
